 I sit here alone on the banks of the river

 The lonesome wind blows, the water rolls high

 I hear a voice call , out there in the darkness

 I sit here alone Too lonesome to cry

Oh The water rolls high on the river at midnight

I sit on the shore to weep and to cry

The woman I love, she left me this morning

With no one to love, or kiss me goodnight

 We met there one night, on the banks of the river

 Stood holding hands and making our vows

 But a new love she's found, she's gone from me now
